

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1909.

NO. 30.

Bobbitt's Babble.

This is my third week's sojourn at Stanford, which is quite a thriving, pleasant place to reside permanently or temporarily. If I did not live at Crab Orchard I would live at Stanford. When this court is over I am due at Mt. Vernon, Lancaster, London, Yosemite (July 3 if Mr. Q. R. Jones and I agree upon terms). He has asked how much I would take. I have answered.

This hot weather would convert our court into barren desert were it not for a few beautiful feminine oasis interspersed here and there in the audience like islands in the ocean. All along the highways of life nature has strewn her lovely, fragrant flowers; some in the garden and the most beautiful in the parlor.

In answer to "Constant Reader," I will say that no constant reader of the INTERIOR JOURNAL can be an ignorant man or a very bad man. When I was writing my article on the abuse of the pardoning power, the lawyer and the client in jail occurred to me, but I meant that a governor could not constitutionally or legally pardon a fugitive from justice. If after conviction the defendant appeals his case and runs off, the court of appeals very promptly dismisses his appeal. Sometimes a criminal will say: "I will come in and surrender if you will allow me to give bail." Can't let you off so light as that; you are dictating your terms. Surrender and submit to the courts and then we will consider the question of bail.

CRAB ORCHARD.

The play, "Among The Breakers," given by local talent for the benefit of the Baptist church Tuesday night, was a decided success in every particular. Each one performed his part so well we feel it our duty to mention them separately. Miss Clara Collier, as the fortune teller, acted her part to perfection. Miss Pearl Collier, as Flea Starlight, rescued many lives and received several marriage proposals in a most graceful and realistic manner. Miss Lal Nuckles made quite an impression upon the audience in the way she disposed of her lovers. Lois Morgan acted to perfection the part of Biddy, the waiting maid. Thomas Moore kept the audience lively by his perfect role of Scud, the Negro waiter. Pettus Hayes made a fine Irishman and his wooing of Biddy was perfect. Earl Baker acted the part of Bruce Hunter to perfection and Maurice Perkins made a fine representative for the Press and his wooing of Miss Daze showed he had had some experience in that line. Bragg Thompson acted his part fine as Clarence, the heir. Charles Buchanan, who acted the part of keeper of the lighthouse performed well, although he only had about four days to practice, having to take the place of a member who resigned. The receipts were over $40. A well behaved crowd felt amply repaid for attending and all unite in praising Miss Georgia Lewis for her management in the affair, and kindly thank the people from adjoining towns for their assistance. Mr. Victor Tate, of Mt. Vernon, treated the audience to several beautiful songs. Miss Mahony, of Stanford, playing the piano accompaniments, and Mr. Bragg Thompson also entertained at the piano. The proceeds are to be used to paper the church.

OTTENHEIM.

Wm. Marshbanks, of Garrard, was visiting relatives in the section.

The farmers are greatly behind with their crops, owing to the recent rains. Rev. Geo. D. Verco preached at Pine Grove church Sunday to a large crowd. Joe Lawson has bought the Skelton-Coleman farm and will take charge at once.

Richard Harris, who has been very low with pneumonia is able to sit up now. Mrs. Adam Petry, who has been ill, is some better.

There are several large tobacco barns going up, with a greatly increased acreage of tobacco being put in, which also means an increase in the prices of land.

The tobacco fever is raging. Every farmer is setting out his best spots of land in the weed and S. M. Chandler has set out his entire garden in tobacco.

Several farms have changed hands in this section, each seller realizing a handsome profit. It seems that the Germans are getting rich trading with one another.

Men Past Fifty In Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation.

Louis W. Foster, John M. Gorman, Walter Campbell, A. C. Baldwin, Edwin Heil and J. M. Scott were sentenced to a term of six months in jail and a fine of $200 and costs each in the United States District Court at Cincinnati for using the United States mails to further schemes to defraud.

In several arrests made in Columbus, Marion and Dennison, Ohio, Federal inspectors and detectives who worked in conjunction with them in the case, believe that they have unearthed the biggest and best organized branch of the Black Hand in this country, Marion, Ohio, being probably the head of the organization. Chief Post-office Inspector Charles Holmes, of Cincinnati, who is in charge of the work which has resulted in the arrests so far made, is authority for the statement that evidence has been secured showing that the gang operating from Marion and with lines reaching into a number of big cities of the country have fleeced different persons in Ohio and other States out of thousands of dollars in the last few months by the application of Black Hand methods.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Litter work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

Trouble Makers Ousted.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and Indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25¢ at Penny's Drug Store.

A bronze tablet on the residence occupied by Jefferson Davis during the years from 1875 to 1878 was unveiled in Memphis Wednesday by Miss Lucy White Hayes, granddaughter of the President of the Confederacy.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Orlax Laxative for constipation, stomach and liver trouble, as it sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. New Stanford Drug Co.

E. C. WALTON

"COL." NOEL GAINES, who was taken up by the republican administration for delivering the alleged letter of Gen. Haly to Judge Lassing, which was to show the falseness of Gov. Beckham's prohibition professions, and given a "fat sit," has been peremptorily dismissed from the service by order of Gov. Wilson because of unsustained charges against Adjutant General P. P. Johnston's administration of his office. There was a rumor that Gaines held a four-year contract with the present administration to be taken care of, but this dismissal, if not simply for public display and to ameliorate General Johnston, seems to contradict the rumor. Gov. Wilson is wise, however, if he will profit by the experience of his distinguished predecessor, who after having aided Gaines, had him to turn against him with all the fury of a serpent warmed to life in the breast of his savior.

THE Confederate veterans have once more met in reunion and returned to their homes. The gray and grizzled host, many of them lean and weak, is fast going the way of all flesh and the diminishing number at each reunion tells the story of how fast they who were the flower of the earth are taking their places in the silent chambers of the dead. May they all hear the welcome plaudit: You fought a good fight, you have kept the faith; enter into the joys of thy Lord.

THE newspaper of to-day is a great institution and wonderful indeed is its inventions and resources. The North American, published at Philadelphia, celebrated its 10th birthday Monday with a big edition, one section of which contains 16 pages, was devoted to praises and criticisms of the paper by prominent men from all over the country, accompanied by pictures of the writers. It was one of the cleverest pieces of advertising we have ever seen.

THE solicitor general has decided that if the liquor is at least half the product of grain it is whisky, otherwise the decoction is something else. But what difference does it make to us, when liquors of all kinds are in the contraband list? The best of the vile stuff is bad, with some of it worse. So let those who are interested fight over the matter, which we can regard with supreme indifference.

THE attempted assassination in Breathitt county of Ed Callahan, Judge Hargis' right hand bower, is another proof that they who live by the sword will die by the sword. A vile creature who will from ambush shoot down in cold blood a man whom he dare not face in open conflict, deserves a death worse in torture than those invented by Spanish inquisitors in their most fiendish moods.

THE Shriners have been very much in evidence in Louisville this week. To dress up like a Turk with flowing blue breeches, a many colored jacket and wear a red fez may be funny to the young fellows but what an old sucker can get out of such foolishness is a little past finding out, unless on the hypothesis that all fun is imaginary; a theory of the pessimists.

WITH 70 candidates before the republican primary for county offices in Pulaski to-morrow, the political pot is boiling there as never before. We hope the best men may win and that the stereotyped expression "the election passed off quietly," will describe the result, but if there is not a killing or two all signs go for naught this hot, rainy weather.

IN Omaha if you swear over the phone you are liable to a fine of $100. But what is a poor fellow to do when central keeps him waiting till his patience is exhausted and then tells him the number he wants is "busy"?

THE pantaloons gown has made its appearance in Louisville. Figuratively most married women wear the breeches, but this is the first fashionable attempt to do so in reality.

POLITICAL.

Former Mayor Robert W. Bingham is a candidate for the democratic nomination for Mayor of Louisville.

Clarence J. Owens, of Abbeville, Ala., was elected president of the Sons of the United Confederate Veterans.

Some of the republican leaders in the Senate believe that an agreement will be entered into to vote on the tariff bill June 26.

Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, has signed the bill prohibiting the smoking of cigarettes in public places by persons between the ages of 15 and 18 years.

A Washington special to the Globe says President Taft will veto the tariff bill unless the Senate and House leaders effect reductions at some stage of the passage of the bill through Congress.

John Norris, chairman of the Committee on paper, of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, addressed the Senate Finance Committee in a plea for free wood pulp and lower duty on print paper.

Charles R. Baugh, of London, who was thrown from a horse at Deming, N. M., a few days ago, died of his injuries.

The Prison Commissioners decided that the arrest of William Rousey, of Boyle, was proper and he will not be paroled again. He was sent up for 21 years for murder.

Robert West, of Lancaster, representing Kentucky hemp growers, is in Washington for a conference with Senator Bradley with a view of securing some further concessions for that state before the tariff bill is passed.

Sunday night a negro baby about three months old was left in the waiting room at the depot. The baby was left by a colored woman who got off of the 11 o'clock Southern and boarded the midnight Cincinnati Southern.—Advocate.

The Court of Appeals reversed as to Gillispie and affirmed as to Harp the judgment of the Whitley Circuit Court in the cases of Charles Harp and Clyde Gillispie against the Commonwealth. Both were given 10 years for the murder of James Anderson.

Hai Denny, a good citizen of Burgin, was shot by a Negro named Dan Carr and probably fatally wounded. Denny claims there was no provocation for the deed. Carr was arrested and a mob formed to lynch him but he was spirited away to the Harrodsburg jail.

Prof. E. L. Grubbs, while at Kings Mountain four months of this year prepared three graduates for examination for common school certificates and they successfully passed the May 14-15 examination at Stanford, although one was a boy only 12 years old, the son of Dr. J. M. Acton, formerly of Junction City.—Junction City cor. Advocate.

MATRIMONIAL.

Ashford Wilson and Miss Flora Alice Denny were made one yesterday.

B. B. Reddicks, of Washington county, and Miss Myrtle Steele Timberlake, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Timberlake, of the West End, were married in Rev. R. B. Mahony's office by Supt. Garland Singleton. Rev. Mahony took part in the ceremony.

Charges that a degree of divorce obtained by Grace B. Guggenheim in 1901 from William Guggenheim, head of the so-called Smelter Trust, was obtained through fraud and collusion, were made in Chicago. A rule was issued on the principals to show cause why the decree should not be set aside.

James E. Gooch, a prominent young farmer of the Goshen section, and Miss Zella Holtzclaw, the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. J. T. Holtzclaw, also of that section, were married Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Eid. J. G. Livingston, and was a very pretty one. They left at once for a bridal trip to Cincinnati and other cities. Mr. Gooch is a son of Lilburn Gooch.

New Orleans was chosen as the next meeting place of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, in the meeting of the Imperial Council at the Scottish Rite Cathedral in Louisville.

White working in the slaughter-house of his father, Taylor Collins, a butcher of Frankfort, Earl Collins, aged 25 years, slipped on the bloody floor, falling on the point of a butcher knife held in his hand. The blade pierced the young man's heart, killing him instantly.

Mad Mullah.

Note.—It is reported that the Mad Mullah has a band of hunters on the Roosevelt trail near Nairobi.

Mad Mullah on a summer day, called out his band in fierce array.

"You hot Somali men," said he, "Must get some great big game for me; The rhino, hippo and them all, Compared with this are mighty small."

Mad Mullah smiled when thus he spoke; His hot Somalis saw the joke.

"We're on, we're on, they yelled in glee; Now turn us loose and you shall see How quickly we will go and find That great game you have in mind."

Mad Mullah grinned, for well he knew What hunting stunts his band could do.

"Good, hot Somalis," said he then, "Now scatter and come back again With that big game, for if you fall The bunch of you will go to jail."

You said you would; don't stir my ire; You know how I despise a liar."

You'll have a corking time, I hope, And bring him hither on the lopé."

The hot Somalis bowed and skipped, Resolved to have the big game nipped.

Mad Mullah, in the desert hot, Waits, wondering if they or not.

The Return.

He sought the old scenes with eager feet,

The scenes he had known as a boy, "Oh, for a draught of those fountains sweet,

And a taste of that vanished joy!"

He roamed the fields, he wooed the streams,

His schoolboy paths essayed to trace; The orchard ways recalled his dreams; The hills were like his mother's face.

O sad, sad hills! O cold, cold earth! In sorrow he learned this truth— One may return to the place of birth, He can not go back to his youth.
